

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

CRIMINAL NO. 04-10348-MEL

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

MARIO RODRIGUEZ PERALTA

ORDER OF VOLUNTARY DETENTION

DECEMBER 1, 2004

BOWLER, Ch.U.S.M.J.

On December 1, 2004, defense counsel stated in open court that her client would enter into a period of voluntary detention without prejudice. The court will reopen the issue of detention upon motion of the defendant.

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant be detained. This court orders the defendant's detention subject to the following conditions:

- (1) The defendant be, and he hereby is, committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility, separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) The defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his counsel; and

(3) On Order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to an authorized Deputy U.S. Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
